Yo, good job

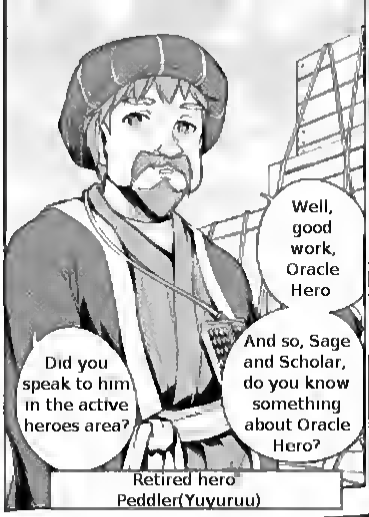
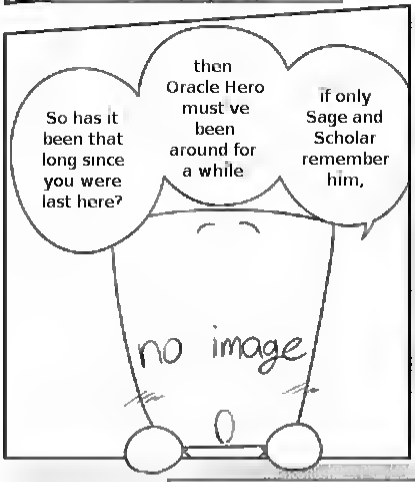
You are in the presence of the calming Student!
Welcome and well done
Retired hero Student(Global state)
Oh and Oracle Hero, good work out there,
go ahead and vent
What is it, Sage?
Retired hero Soldier(Glum empire)
The hero of Titilcy...
Hold on...
Was your journey that frustrating?
Retired hero Sage(Sky Garden)



Did you speak to him in the active heroes area?
Well, good work, Oracle Hero
And so, Sage and Scholar, do you know something about Oracle Hero?
Retired hero Peddler(Yuyuruu)



So has it been that long since you were last here?
then Oracle Hero must've been around for a while if only Sage and Scholar remember him,

Pretty much

Sage aside, are Scholar and Oracle Hero immortals or something?
have you been here that long?
yet Scholar and Sage do,
Student, who appears in every thread, doesn't know about him,
Huh?
Isn't Scholar's race simply long-lived?
Which is a pretty long time for us humans, lol
Well, yes, though I'm merely 150 years old

15 Retired hero, Oracle Hero(Titilcy)
By the way, my last thread was—
Uh, what was it...

Back in the active heroes area, there was a thread titled "I can't keep this up without drinking"!
Ah! I remember it now!
Oh, right
That one where we got drunk and vented
So you were venting back then as well lol
Back then a hero flooded the board!
Ah, that's right!
It's still remembered as one of the association's legends!
A hero kept spamming the board until it went down!
ゴオオオオオ

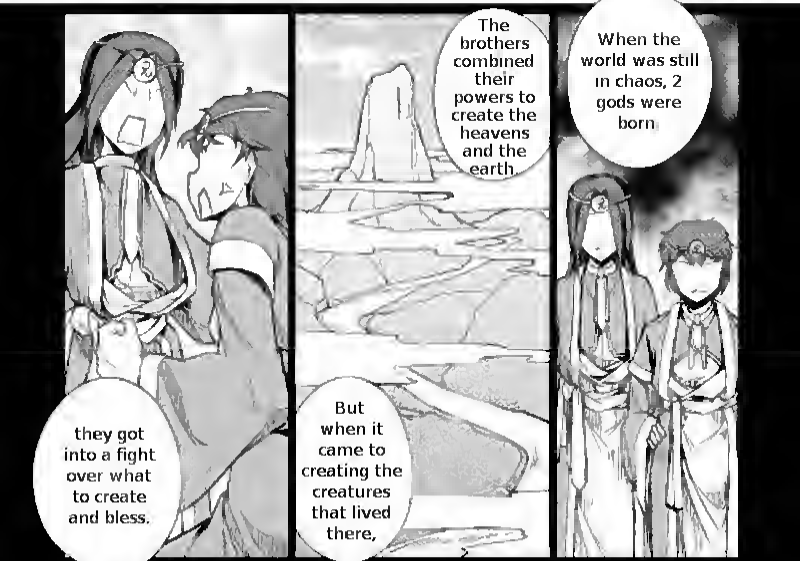
I remember hearing about that!

23 Retired hero Oracle Hero

Right.
I should explain it from the start for the new guys here
From the very beginning,
so let s start with my world s creation.



When the world was still in chaos, 2 gods were born.
The brothers combined their powers to create the heavens and the earth.
But when it came to creating the creatures that lived there, they got into a fight over what to create and bless.

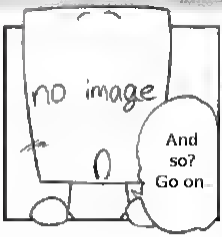
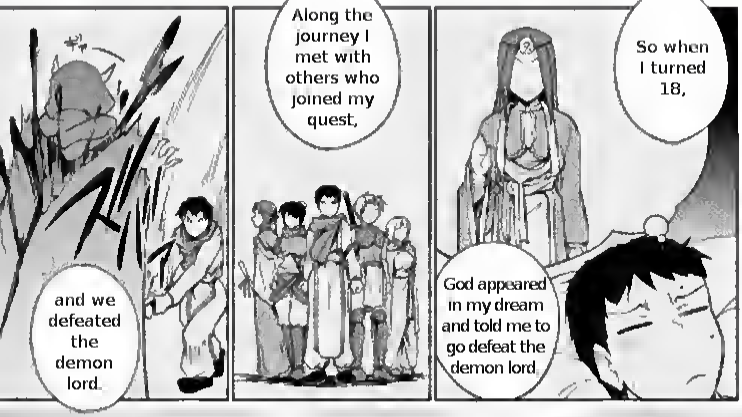
He also planted a seed for the demon lord,
and said that when the time comes, it'll destroy everything.
In the end, the older god won and created all living creatures.
But as he disappeared, the defeated younger god uttered a curse, and created demons.
CURSE
When the demon lord's seed sprouts, the hero shall be born and will defeat the demon lord.
Unable to lift the curse, the older god planted a hero's seed inside a human.

24 Retired hero: Oracle Hero

And so, I was born as the hero





So when I turned 18,
God appeared in my dream and told me to go defeat the demon lord
Along the journey I met with others who joined my quest, and we defeated the demon lord.

29 Retired hero Soldier
And then it ended, right?

30 Retired hero Sage
I'm starting to remember more, that wasn't the end

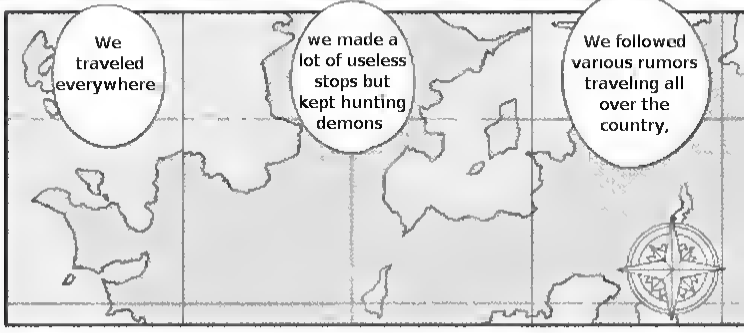
31 Retired hero Scholar
Indeed.

you cannot stop the calamity!
You may have defeated me, but the great demon lord s seed still remains.
Apparently there was still a great demon lord.

33 Retired hero Peddler
Well, that s certainly not a settled matter. Still, a great demon lord is rather unusual.

34 Retired hero Sage
But the story don t end there.

35 Retired hero Soldier
Huh? What do you mean?



We traveled everywhere
we made a lot of useless stops but kept hunting demons
We followed various rumors traveling all over the country,

a small uninhabited island
After having been everywhere
we finally discovered the great demon lord's lair
37 Retired hero Student
And then, and then?
This ll be good!
no image
38 Retired hero Peddler
So... You defeated the demon lord and it all ended?
Or did it perhaps...
Hehehe, you've done well to get this far but the great demon lord said something as he died
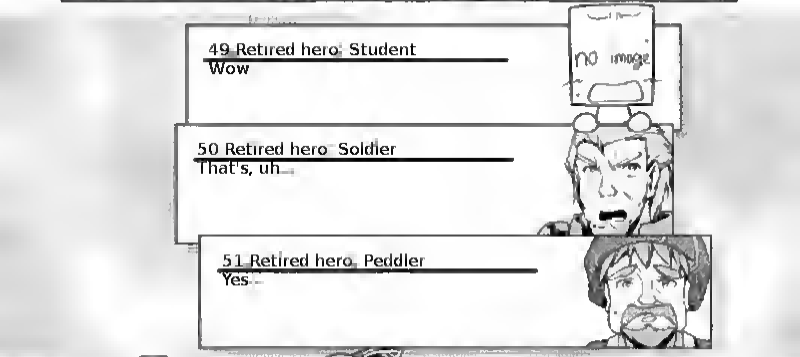
We thought it was over now,
We traveled to the island, wiped out all the demons, and fought the great demon lord.

After that, the great demon lord s castle collapsed, revealing a hole that lead to another world
you cannot stop the calamity!
You may have defeated me, but the true lord still reigns in the demon world,
It's endless!
no image
Huh?
But what was I supposed to do? I decided to ask the heads of the various countries
And I defeated him,
I even defeated the great demon lord.
The meaning of my existence as a hero.
In my world,
the hero exists to defeat the demon lord.

Around then, 2 of my comrade left.
I was desperate back then, so I took part in a complaint thread drunk, and then spammed the board.
Dear Hero,
If more demon lords are there then I hope you can go over to the demon world and beat them
-Important Person
The reply was "If our world is still in danger, then go over there
45 Retired hero Sage
Right, it around that time.
46 Retired hero Scholar
Indeed
47 Retired hero Adventurer
Why did they leave?
In a way the real fight was just ahead.
You were about to go into enemy territory!
The swordswoman and female magician were the ones that left
I still remember the swordswoman's bloodcurdling screams.

"If this goes on any longer, I'll be way too old for marriage!"
5 years had already passed by then...



49 Retired hero: Student
Wow

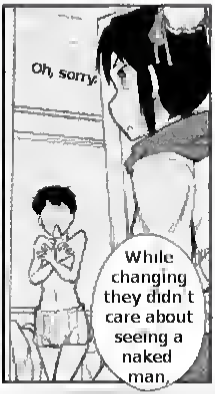
50 Retired hero: Soldier
That's, uh...
51 Retired hero: Peddler
Yes...

Those 5 years made both their bodies and minds burly.
When they originally joined us, they were 18 and 16 and could put flowers to shame.



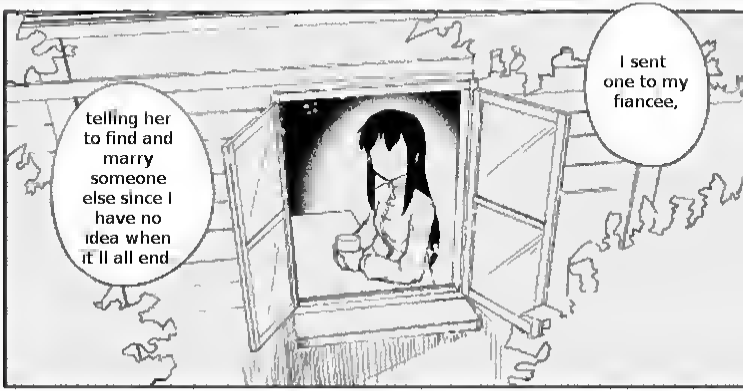
53 Retired hero_Oracle Hero
By the way, here the marriageable age is 18~22.

54 Retired hero_Peddler
Well—
I suppose the fact that they're ladies would pique one's interest

They likely never expected it would take an entire 5 years.
and not by any sort of order
They probably joined of their own will

57 Retired hero Adventurer

What letters?



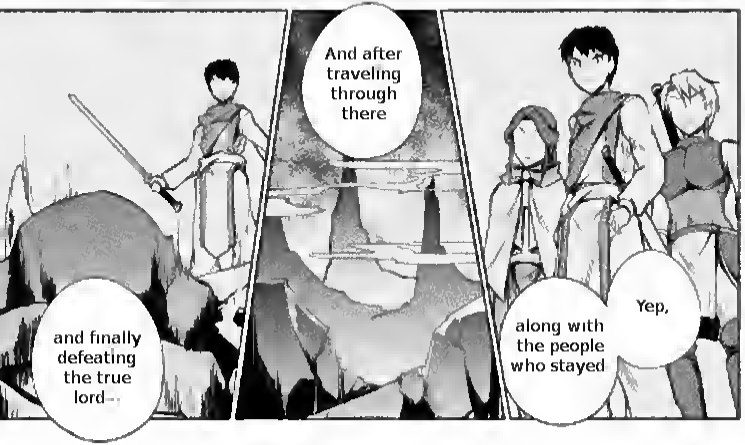
59 Retired hero: Scholar
And then you raged in that thread.

60 Retired hero: Sage
Oh, that was quite a ruckus...

61 Retired hero: Student
There's nothing left from around that time because the board went down.
I wish I could've witnessed the legendary event myself!

62 Retired hero: Soldier
That's just...

63 Retired hero: Peddler
Erm... So did you head into the demon world then?



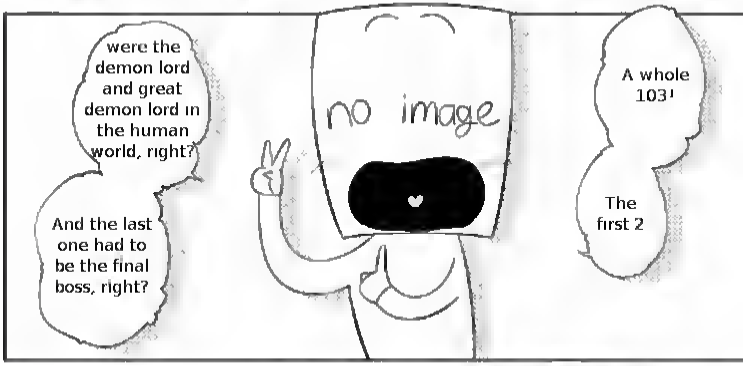
You may have defeated me, but the great true lord still remains, you cannot stop the calamity!
Huh?
Ugh...
You may have defeated me, but the cruel true lord still remains, you cannot (skipped)
So we beat the great true lord
You may have defeated me, but the cursed true lord (skipped)
Beat the wicked true lord
So we beat the cruel true lord
You may (skipped), but the butchering true lord (skipped)
The true lord of woe
Beat the cursed true lord
but the true lord of disaster
The true lord of misfortune
The butchering true lord
You may (skipped), but the true lord of woe (skipped)
You may have defeated me, but the wicked true lord still remains, (skipped)
but the genuine lord
The evil true lord
but the evil true lord
The true lord of disaster
but the true lord of misfortune

72 Retired hero, Oracle Hero

First it was the true lord group,
then the genuine lords,
and then another series appeared.
And they all came in groups of 10.

How many did you kill?
So, uh...
I remember you disappearing after that incident, but to think this is what happened
How many of these demon lords did you fight?
I don't even know what to say...

77 Retired hero: Slayer Of 103 Demon Lords
I changed my name!
How's that! Damn it all!

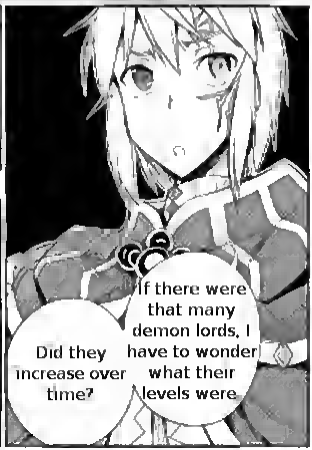


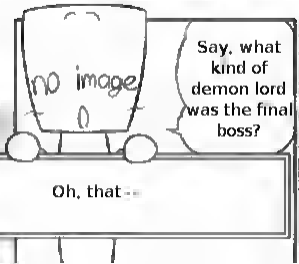
were the demon lord and great demon lord in the human world, right?
And the last one had to be the final boss, right?
no image
A whole 103!
The first 2

82 Retired hero: Slayer Of 103 Demon Lords
Oh it was big!
It was several times bigger than the human world!

We had no information to go on and no map, we just went around the whole place killing whatever demon lord we encountered. We just didn't have another option.

Every time they would say "You may have defeated me..." our only reaction was just a wry smile.



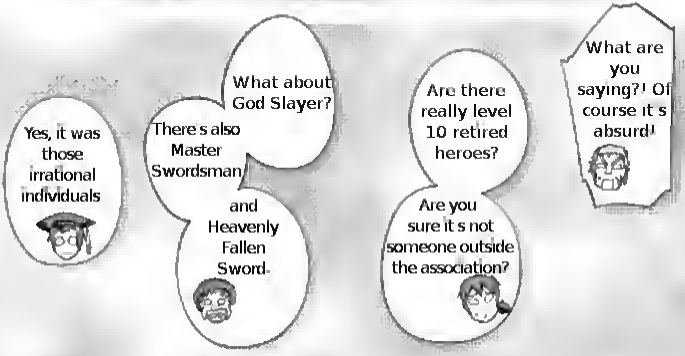


It s me
The younger god that was supposed to be dead was actually the demon lord god.
Huh?
you took a while.
You re finally here,
It was a god.

93 Retired hero: Student
Oh wow
That s just unbeatable

94 Retired hero: Sage
Aren t gods rated level 10 by the association?
Did you actually beat the highest level?

95 Retired hero: Scholar
Did beating all of those demon lords bring him to level 10 as well?
I know there are some retired heroes that are rated as level 10, so it s not that absurd.



Yes, it was those irrational individuals
What about God Slayer?
There s also Master Swordsman and Heavenly Fallen Sword.
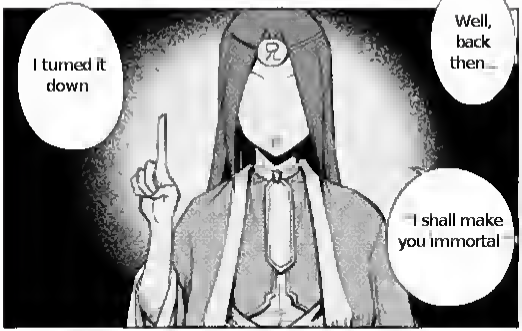
Are there really level 10 retired heroes?
Are you sure it s not someone outside the association?
What are you saying?! Of course it s absurd!

100 Retired hero Student
So then Slayer of 103 Demon Lords is one of those guys now?
That s amazing!

101 Retired hero Slayer Of 103 Demon Lords
No, that s just impossible.
This is one of the gods that created the world.
And do you know what the first thing he said was?



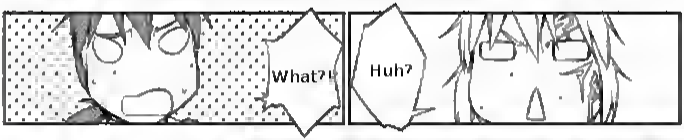
I turned it down
Well, back then...
I shall make you immortal
Right, remember how I set out on this journey because of that dream?

I thought I'd just beat the demon lord and return home
I had no idea it would take this long,

*Slaying demon lords 20 years straight
Instead we spent 20 years killing those 100 demon lords!
二十年一筋斬魔王*

107 Retired hero: Adventurer
So let's see, you set off at 18 and spent 5 years in the human world
108 Retired hero: Student
So he was 43 when he reached the demon lord god.
5 demon lords every year is a pretty good pace.
no image
109 Retired hero: Sage
Indeed. lol
110 Retired hero: Scholar
It's actually a pretty fast pace.
111 Retired hero: Soldier
Aren't you past your prime at that point?
112 Retired hero: Peddler
Oh that he is.
Like I could've known back then!
Apparently that's the reason he wanted me to be immortal

Hey Bro, what happened here?
He began talking telepathically to his brother.
And while I was thinking that over



What?!
Huh?

We've already gone through the trouble of leveling them up
What's that supposed to mean? I've always said you were too soft
So I have to get beaten by some old man?
So what are you gonna do now?
My comrades are old as well now!
Well sorry for being old!

and have him beat the younger god?
What the hell is this?!
no image
They mass produced demon lords to level up the hero
What?! So those 2 gods were actually that close?!
Something about the light of the human world creating a shadow
According to the younger god, demons and the demon world were created by accident
Those mass produced demon lords were made to gather demonic energy and dispose of it
So the younger god made something similar to demons to control them

120 Retired hero: Student
So did you beat the younger god?
And if he wanted to be beaten, couldn't he just ask?

121 Retired hero: Peddler
Yes, didn't he intend to be beat?

123 Retired hero: Student
Wow, if God Slayer heard this, he'd gladly go over there to kill them.

124 Retired hero: Sage
And so, did you actually beat a level 10 opponent?

125 Retired hero: Slayer Of 103 Demon Lords
We beat him!
But it took 3 years.

126 Retired hero: Peddler
Wha-
3 years?!

127 Retired hero: Soldier
Oh, uh... How?

128 Retired hero: Slayer Of 103 Demon Lords
We slowly chipped away at him, our only request was that he doesn't use any regenerative abilities
After 3 years of going at it, we finally beat him!

And out of some unwarranted kindness we were sent back home, except
he made a "good grief" face that I still remember!
And when we finally beat him,
ゴッ
Hero? Yes, I remember someone of that sort.
Who are you?
I'm joining too!
I've got it! Let's drink!
A whole 28 years passed after all
Yeah! Let's drink!
Yes! Let's drink it all away!
I have nothing to say here.
